

Five Star Greece is the disclosed agent of the owners of the properties that it is able to make available for holiday purposes. It does not act in any other capacity other than providing a marketing service, and does not enter into any contract between clients and owners. As agent, Five Star Greece's responsibilities are limited to the provision of information in respect of properties which may be suitable for a client's requirements, facilitating a booking of a chosen property and otherwise communicating between the client and the owner in respect of a booking. Five Star Greece does not have any liability in any capacity (whether as agent for the owner or otherwise) in respect of the performance of a contract by the client or owner, or for the acts and/or omissions of the client, the owner, their employees, agents, suppliers and other third parties who provide any services in respect of or in connection with the Property. The information provided by Five Star Greece in relation to the property, its services and amenities is obtained from the owners or their representatives and is passed on in good faith. Five Star Greece takes reasonable care to verify all information, but does not have any liability in any capacity in respect of any such information, including for any errors, inaccuracies or misrepresentation it may contain.
